

Your Voice. Your KU.

- The KU Climate Study is a university-wide survey to assess KU's culture
 - Identify current attitudes, behaviors, practices at KU.
 - Results can lead to institutional actions that promote success for students, faculty and staff.
 - Sophisticated survey gathers experiences of specific segments of our community, including vulnerable or marginalized groups.
- All responses are confidential and cannot be traced to an individual.
- Survey is live Sept. 13 – Oct. 14, 2016.
